“ I have so many as he was a large part of my childhood. The Frank home was my second home. Living across the street it was not uncommon to see Jim working on the cars or hanging out with my Dad. I remember him getting the boys a Tandem bike and fixing it up for them. He adjusted the chain, tightening it and securing the seats as well as re-bolting the handle bars. It was perfect. We all fought on who was the “driver”. He loves us all and made sure we knew how to take care of ourselves.
