

James "Jim" Ledasil

May 24, 1950 - February 3, 2023

James "Jim" Ledasil, 72, of Greenacres, Florida and formerly of Mentor, Ohio, died February 3, 2023 in Florida. He was born May 24, 1950 in Cleveland.

He was the consummate Salesman, from glass products to software to slot machines. He loved sports both as a player and spectator. Indeed, he met his wife Karen at a professional hockey game, and first met her father for a round of golf. He also enjoyed fishing, skiing, bowling, and he shared these experiences with his family.

With age the physical abilities to play the sports he loved faded, but the value of time and conversations with his family, and watching them both live and play became his passion.

Survivors include his wife, Karen; children, Dan (Carly), and Joseph (Jeanine) Ledasil; 3 grandchildren, Ava, Lana, and Archer; Sisters, Patricia (Loren) Warner and Laurie (Jim) Lundquist.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Joseph and Eleanor Ledasil.

The family will receive friends to celebrate Jim's life from 3-6 p.m. Sunday, March 12, 2023 at the Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home & Cremation Center, 8466 Mentor Ave., Mentor, OH 44060.

A service to conclude the gathering will begin at 6 p.m. on Sunday at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions be made to the American Cancer Society, donate online at <https://donate.cancer.org/>

“ We are so very sorry to hear of Jim’s passing. We have many great memories of fun times shared over the years. Jim will always be remembered as a good friend, and a great story teller. It’s just amazing how fast the years have gone by. Our thoughts are with Karen, Danny and Joe, and their families at this time. Sorry we will not be able to attend the services. Our deepest sympathies to the entire family. With love, Howie and Bonnie Wank

We were neighbors with Jim and Karen and the boys. Jim was a good neighbor and made my first set of golf clubs! He was a kind and friendly soul and an engaged Father. The Tomco family remembers him fondly. Laura
