“ I am so sorry to hear of Jim’s passing. I did not know him or Mary Ann well, but enjoyed the time we spent together with Ron Koelpin. I know Ron and he were close friends for many years. I believe they attended Fenn College and they hosted a program on the radio with music for the college. They shared the love of music.

“ I met Jim when he attended the Grief Support Group at St. Bede after his wife passed. Jim always had something to say about Mary Ann but this one time he had an important question to ask the women in the group. He stood up and very seriously asked “ How the heck do you fold one of those darned fitted sheets” We all laughed so hard and long and gave him two answers. One was to wash and put back on the bed and the other was to just roll it up and shove into the closet. Now he was laughing so hard and saying that he didn’t think it was that easy and that’s not how my wife did it. He always had words of wisdom along with a great sense of humor but he never did tell us if he put it back on or rolled it up. You will be missed our dear friend.

“ So many memories of a wonderful friend for more than 70+ years. The first thing I think of is laughter. He made all around him laugh and enjoy his presence. His views of the world were accurate, if occasionally humorously off color. Jim was a true and abiding friend to all he met. You always felt better after being in his presence. As the saying goes, through thick and thin, he was the man to count on. He had wanted to be a pilot, but life and circumstances thwarted that. But now, he can soar with the angels and MaryAnn. God speed my friend.

“ Karl and I have so many wonderful memories and fun times with Jim. We could actually write a book about them all. One funny thing I remember was when I was at my evening classes at Lakeland Community College after work and got home like 10pm. I came home to Jim and Karl sitting on the step going into the family room laughing hysterically. I thought WOW they are having a great time but then I noticed next to them was a bottle of Ron 150 rum. That explained everything. We laugh about that for years. We are going to miss you Jim but until we meet againKarl and Carol

“ Jim brought so much happiness to our monthly Grief Support Meetings at St. Bede's. All that he was going through and he never once complained or discussed it unless we asked. He was there to make us happy!! He told the lovely story of how he met Mary Ann and of him playing in bands during the hey days. He told us about his family and his dear friend the cat, who kept him company every day. We could ALWAYS count on Jim to make us smile. He will always be with us as we support each other each month. God's blessings on Jim and his lovely family.

“ Jim will be missed by all here at Land Design. We will miss his regulars visits. I will miss our discussions on family, construction, modeling, and diecast. I just saw Jim pumping gas at Speedway on July 3. He had to go out for a haircut after a brief stay in the hospital as his hair was getting "unruly". Made me chuckle. We were to get together after the holiday, but sadly this did not happen.
