“ Growing up, I was always called mom's twin. Now, that is the best compliment I could receive. Mom was wonderful, and kind to all. I wish everyone could have a mother like I did.

“ Mom was at Wesleyan village for 4 years, John and I, and Diane spent nights there as guest, and had many fun hours playing games with mom Her favorite game was "sorry", we played uno, bubble talk, farkle, and more. We enjoyed have our "treats" together, she especially loved her peanut butter fudge, from suzin L chocolate in Elyria. she loved her life at weslyan village. we had several family "parties" together. we will miss her "cowabunga" when she would win a game, and her laughter.
