“Cousin Janet Mayher Barr came into our family more than 50 years ago. Throughout those years she and our Cousin Bob were blessed with loving children and grandchildren for whom they cared greatly. Janet endured physical challenges for a long period of time, but worked bravely to cope and overcome. In Bob, Janet had the blessing of a devoted husband and she was a devoted wife. Though all miss her so much, God now grants Janet eternal peace and joy. We are thankful that she came among us.
