“ Jan was my Mother-in-law and I can attest that she was a beautiful lady, both inside and out. We both shared the letter J as a first name and she passed a few dishes with the letter J onto me. Besides giving me my husband, Scott, she was a loving Grandmother to Joel Thomas Wright and Bethany Ann Wright. Sally said she was dancing in Heaven and I believe that as well as playing the perfect golf game. She was an amazing cook and entertainer. I have several of her recipes, that I have passed on to my kids. Joel married Melinda Wright in 2017 after meeting in the Peace Corp in Lesotho. Joel, a mechanical engineer and quite handy, while in Lesotho, introduced Melinda to Jan and Paul Wright while Scott, Bethany and I were visiting in Lima Ohio while hooking up his phone to a car battery so we could Skype. Upon being introduced, Jan Wright, had the perfect comment, she said, “Joel, you sure know how to pick “em”. That was the perfect comment, and so like her. May she Rest In Peace, and we will have eternity to catch up.
