“ Jean was my sons godmother and a sister from another mother. We were family by choice. She will be missed more than words can express. What I will remember most is how much we always laughed when we were together. May all of her family be comforted knowing that she is no longer ill, that she is at peace and that she is smiling down at all of us. God bless.

“ Jean, it was a real pleasure being your cousin. I always enjoyed talking to you on the phone and your laughter at my jokes. Just talked to you last Thursday but no one knows the hour when our lives will be required of us. The good die young and I think Jesus had something better planned for you. Say HI to your Dad and Mom for me. Until we meet again you are in my thoughts and prayers..... Your cousin, Rich Sholtis.
