“ Rod and boys:

For the past 2 years of knowing her, I valued Jean's friendship more than I can express. We shared so many things with each other, and she knew that I thought of her as a mother figure. We spent a lot of time together, and I am thankful for that time. I was shocked to hear of her quick passing and hope she did not suffer, as that was a fear of hers. She told me she did not want to be a burden to her family. She shared that she was not frightened to die and especially looked forward to seeing her husband and family in Heaven.

We heard of her passing at Sunday Mass, and I called St. John Vianney to see if the Memorial Mass was private, and I was told no. Therefore, we attended the Memorial Mass. My husband and I did not find out it was a private, family service until the day after (today, 1/27) when the obit appeared in the newspaper. I know that she would have wanted us to be there and hope that we didn't intrude. It was very important to me to be there. I will miss her more than words can say and will remember her with a loving heart and look forward to the day when I will see her again.
