“ *Jeanne and Bridget,
We were so very sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. The entire Burk family joins me in sending ((hugs)) and condolences. The world has lost a truly wonderful Mom, Grandma, Great-grandma and friend. I first met your mom at Bridget and John's wedding and reception. I was so impressed with what a welcoming hostess she was (even though 18 month old Dan tried his best to get into everything). The most memorable part of that day was eating all the amazing food and desserts she made! And,when complimented, she responded, "It was nothing"!!!! Judy Burk*

“ - We met Alice and Red when we bought your parents home in December of 1992. Your mom told us "you should have to pay for the view" We always say, "Alice was right". Your father asked us to take care of the birds, we have kept that promise. In their final garage sale they were selling xmas ornaments, they are on our tree today.

We have thought of them often, having only met them once, they touched our lives.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Warmest Regards,

“ Jeannie and Rosemary,
I am so sorry to learn of your Mother's passing. I enjoyed having her as a neighbor and friend. I miss her smile, cheerful greetings, and chats. And of course her Apple Strudel.
