“ Jeff, you will be dearly missed by your family and friends. Your sister and brothers spent so much time at our house they were all one of the family and now we are one short. We'd come home and one of you guys would just be sitting there waiting. What wonderful memories of a childhood. May thoughts are with Mary Beth and all at this time

“ My dear cousin Jeffery always had a smile upon his face as you see in his picture! He was the happy-go lucky man that I admired and would have made the perfect Santa Claus due to his demeanor. I shall miss his sharing of great finds, as well as our stories of his beloved late grandmother. God grant him peace and thanks be that he no longer suffers the pain endured by cancer. God bless his immediate family in their time of grief and anguish. My prayers and love to them all. - Pat Calhoun
