“ I worked with Jeff for a short while at a kinko's copy center (Now FedEx office) in Independence, OH. He only got a job there so he could get a discount on copies so he didnt have to pay the insane price the lawyers would've charged him for the litigation he was involved in. He was a great guy. Great attitude, great personality, and a motivated man. I was looking for him on facebook, thinking it would be great to reconnect with him. I am so sad to find that he has passed on, and at such a young age. He is probably up there laughing at the craziness we are dealing with down here.

Jeff, I look forward to seeing you again someday in the hereafter.
