“Jo-Ann was a sweet and gentle soul who was always loving and welcoming in her home. I will miss my Mentor Meteorologist who always kept me up to date with the vagaries of Lake Erie weather.

“Aunt Jo was a loving, caring and thoughtful aunt. Although she wasn't able to travel much she always made sure you knew she was supporting you from afar. Her Christmas morning "recipe" will live on in our family tradition forever as will her loving memory. We'll miss you Aunt Jo-Ann, thank you for the hugs, the crisp $20 bills in our cards, the stories you'd share and the laughs. May you Rest In Peace.

“ Cousins are your first friends and life long playmates. Jody taught me how to color when I was very young and how to nurture plants and flowers as we aged. Her calmness and ever helpful attitude will be missed.

“ Jo-Ann was generous and kind in word and deed - will miss all the newsy chats we often had over our grocery carts in Heinen's - all her stories told with the sweetest smile, sharing stories about her family whom she loved dearly. She will be missed.
