“ Our deepest sympathy on Aunt Joan's passing. She and Uncle Dick were Mr. & Mrs. Santa Claus, always making the best homemade gifts for us! (Took a nap on one of Joan's pillows on the coach today!) Not only did they bless us with material gifts, but the gifts of love and care with phone calls and letters to stay in touch over the years and miles. Know that their faith and prayers touched many lives as well.
May God give you all comfort during this time. Thinking of you all, and you are in our prayers.
