“ My Mom and Joan were best friends for over 50 years. Joan was like a 2nd Mom to me. Her laugh was infectious!! Her cooking was beyond delicious. She lost both her precious daughter and loving husband way too early. My Love goes out to all of her family that I grew up with. Kimberly Baronkin

“ Life places certain people in our lives that remain always on our hearts. This was Joan but I called her Mom. I was 15 when I met her . She was like my second Mom. I loved her . Life is unpredictable though and we lost touch. I will always remember her laughter and joking , kindness and of course her cooking ! I still make roast beef and turkey dinners the way she showed me . My prayers are extended to her entire family . Just remember that she is reunited now with her loves ,Al and the daughter she adored . Though you are sad and missing her those thoughts will bring you joy ! Love to you all , Lynn S Price
