“ Aunt "Jojo" was a generous and loving aunt and godmother to me. She loved to take Kristin and me shopping, entertained us at her house, gave us the independence to walk to the Toronto Pool by ourselves, which was such a big deal to us. She was a thoughtful gift giver, loved to send us cards for all occasions, and we loved to tease back and forth about the Browns-Steelers rivalry. You can be sure that when the Steelers beat the Browns, my phone would ring 5 minutes later for some playful ribbing! Her wonderful sense of humor was with her right until the end, as was her loving devotion to family, and we will all miss her immensely.
