“ I met John while helping with the St John Vianney float for the Better in Mentor days several years back. He was such a gifted and gracious man, truly one of God's greatest blessings. I miss sitting next to him at 4pm mass but know his spirit is with us now. Well done, good and faithful servant. Barb & Tim Fahey xo

“ John and Sally were our very good friends, first meeting at our church choir of St. Williams Church. We enjoyed many dinners and evenings together at stage musicals in Cleveland and in Toronto Canada. My husband Joe and John were different personalities that seemed to click and become buddies. He always had a way of finding something new and fun to do, of which we shared with him and Sally. I know that his daughter Judy will miss him so much (Daddy's girl) and so will her sons. I will miss John and feel very fortunate that he and Sally were our friends and that I have so many happy memories of our times together. God Bless! JosephineSkur

John was a true friend who helped us along in life. John was a sponsor of the Higbee Golf Outings which we both played. With much love to Sally and Judy we all had great times with John
