“ John Cady was one of the kindest people I have ever met. He and I used to fly every night after work, and enjoyed it do much. We were flying to the East Coast to go fishing, and the engine on the Plane quit about 5,000 feet over Maryland. John glided it in to an airport near by, and landed it. When we landed , we had to push it off the runway at the big airport. Instead of being scared, John just laughed as if it were an everyday thing. He took are of me as a Physician, and was a good friend for many years. He will be greatly missed not only by myself, but so many people that he helped over the years at his practice, and in the ER.

We miss you John, and miss your laugh and great attitude about life.

We will meet again someday, and laugh again.

I have wondered for some time why I haven't heard from John recently. So sorry to have found this when searching for information about John. Knew him for many years, having met and befriended him in the early '70s in Philadelphia. Lovely friend, you are missed.
