“ I miss you and I'll never forget you. I hope you are at peace, I promise to keep your memory alive every single day with our beautiful children. This cannot be real. I love you forever and always. Your charming ways were always making me laugh, even when I was mad! I want to thank you for working hard so I could be a stay at home mom for 7 years, the best years of my life. I hate that you ever suffered for one minute but the truth is, you suffered for years. You are at peace now. I love you forever my best friend and father of my children. I am trying to celebrate your life but I am finding it hard not to cry every second. I hope my nanna, pop pop, your beloved grandparents, yoshi ;), my aunts and uncle, your friends you lost to this horrific disease and every other beautiful person in heaven take good care of you. Watch over us, keep us safe, and please give me strength to do this alone. You are your children's biggest hero. You were perfect to them and you always will be remembered that way. Also, help out the DAMN BROWNS will ya?!!!!!!!
