“ Worked with Doc on many projects over a 40 year period. Whether it was under a horse, in a pig sty, in the operating room, behind a table saw or bailing hay you always learned something new and you could always tell that he cared about the task at hand. You will be missed by many and truly missed by me. Rest easy.

“ Deepest condolences from the Winkler family. From the time I was a child, my family's pets were always taken to Dr. Kroh. Whether it was for a checkup or for a final visit, we could always trust the Good Doctor to give our pets the best care and to give us the best advice. My mother always believed Dr. Kroh to be St. Francis reincarnated because of his gentle soul and love for all animals great and small. I can only imagine how many wagging tails, clomping hooves, and twitching noses met him as he was crossing the Rainbow Bridge.

“*Doc was a wonderful man who was well loved by all who knew him. He spent long hours several times saving my horse and other animals and never begrudged the time it took to help any animal, or any person, for that matter. He cared about helping and healing and his dry sense of humor was priceless.
My most sincere condolences to the family.*
