“ My Grandpa Jack was the most beautiful loving person. Heaven has received an angel. My heart is hurting but I know he is with The Lord and my Grandma who he loved so much. He was always so positive and cared so much about others. He always told me he loved me and my family. I will miss all our conversations and lunch dates. I will never forget 18 years ago he flew out to California to walk me down the aisle. I was so nervous and shaking. He held my hand so tight and told me this is a piece of cake honey and not to worry. What a beautiful day it was! I love you so much Grandpa! You are going to be missed but I know I will see your beautiful face again. xoxo

So with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy. (John 16:22 NIV)

“ My brother Jack was one of a kind. Here's where a proud sister goes on and on about her brother.....Jack was so smart, polite, courteous, independent and self reliant to a fault. It was not "in his being" to inconvenience any one person. He found a way to do everything himself, always with a smile and a "How are you kid"...."I'm doing great" greeting. He was so proud of his family. To Jack, family and friends were everything. I found out recently how very much he is loved and respected by his whole family, friends and neighbors.

Jack is now hand in hand with his beloved Callie, our parents and grandparents. He said "I'll be there with Mom and Dad to greet you when you arrive honey". What a man. I love you Jack. I will miss talking to you....well, listening to you, because you talked a lot!

Love, Sister Irene
