“ I'm saddened to hear of John's passing. I rode the bus with him in the mornings and he was such a sweet and caring man. There was one day I was early for a class and I didn't want to sit downtown alone for an hour so I got on the bus and he rode the bus the entire time with me, even though it took him back downtown. We had a wonderful talk about many things. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends. God bless.

“ Searching through the crowds for the man his reflective vest...The man with the beautiful singing voice...The man who showed his love by actions..I miss you, John, my friend. But now I must wait patiently for Isaiah 25: 8 "He the swallow up death forever, and the sovereign Lord Jehovahwill wipe away the tears from all faces. " Rachel aka Anna

“ I had the pleasure of meeting John during my employment with USPS. He was such an awesome person! He prayed for me and encouraged me as I grieved the loss of my parents. He would always talk about his wife! He loved her dearly. John, you will truly be missed!!

Your friend,
Jen C.
