“ I played Pop Warner football with John. His wonderful father was the coach. Angela was a cheerleader(always had a crush on her! Lol). I loved those years, John was a little older and bigger--but he treated me Soo nice. he made me feel welcome. I loved coach niebecker. My father, Harry Evans helped coach and he had a wonderful time...thanks to the niebeckers!
I did not get to see John after football, we went to different schools, but I know, just looking at his picture---he stayed a really nice guy. The world is better because of folks like John! Much love to the family! LarryEvans

“ To our Neibecker family...We are so very sad about John. He was always so loving and caring to our whole family. From the moment we all met, over 12 years ago, we instantly bonded and became part of this wonderful family! We will definitely miss his famous Fourth of July picnics! Our love and prayers will continue to be with all of you! Knowing he is with Jesus can hopefully bring some peace. We love you and are here for all of you!
