“ Uncle Kevin O'Neill (the late Msgr. Kevin O'Neill), always looked forward to sharing his birthday with his cousin Jack, as their birthdays were a day apart. I always enjoyed meeting Jack and Gayle when they came to Buffalo for different events. But I will always remember the phone calls from Jack after Kevin died. He would call me just so see how things were going and share stories of him and my Uncle. My deepest condolences to Gayle and the whole family.
