

John J. Skvasik

October 2, 2012

John J. Skvasik of Concord Township, died Tuesday, Oct. 2, 2012, at Hospice House of the Western Reserve after a brief but courageous battle with cancer.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pa., John moved to the west side of Cleveland as a child. After graduating from West Technical High School, he majored in civil engineering at Fenn College in Cleveland. John proudly served with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in Thailand during the Vietnam era before beginning a long career in the construction field, mainly in project management.

An ardent outdoorsman, he enjoyed fly-fishing, hunting, and skeet/target shooting. John loved listening to music, particularly jazz. In recent years, he had rekindled his passion for photography.

A dedicated family man, John is survived by his beloved wife of 36 years, Mary Kay (nee Repicky); and their only son, John. He is also survived by sister, Maryann Bolton; brother, Michael (Bethany); and brothers-in-law, John (Laura) and Thomas Repicky. He was a loving uncle to Pamela Bolton, Matthew, Michael, and David Skvasik, and Philip and Christina Repicky. John was preceded in death by his parents, John and Anna.

Friends and family may call from 1 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 5, 2012, at Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home & Cremation Center, 8466 Mentor

Ave., Mentor. Mass of Christian Burial will be 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 6, 2012, at St. John Vianney Catholic Church, 7575 Bellflower Road, Mentor, followed by interment at All Souls Cemetery in Chardon Township.

Online obituary www.brunners.com.