It's been almost four months since we lost you and it still feels like yesterday. I miss you more than anyone will ever know. My heart is broken into a thousand pieces and will never be mended. Someday, I know we will be reunited forever in the great beyond. I love and miss you very, very much!*

“ My sweet, funny, and ornery Grampy, I will miss you more than words can say. I wanted so badly to see you again this year, but I'm grateful we were able to last year. I loved watching you hug on your great-grands. They love hearing stories about you.

You've always been an inspiration to me, and I hope to make you proud! Thank you for always being there for me, with a hug and a laugh, and for letting me wear your undershirts as a nightgown when I spent the night. I hope you have already found the buttermilk up there.

Until we meet again... 💕 Your Bo dean
