“ I'm so sad to hear of Joe's passing. I haven't seen him in years and years, but I'll never forget his full body laugh and his kindness. He was larger than life in life and he will live on in fond memories. He told me once that I was to let him know if anyone ever messed with me, because he would take care of it. I never needed his services in that regard, but that has never left me - so funny, so caring and very much like Joe - always looking out for others. God bless you all and my prayers to you in this difficult time.
