

Joyce M. (Kluska) Duncan

October 2, 1949 - October 23, 2016

Joyce M. (Kluska) Duncan, 67, of Mentor for the past 36 years, passed away peacefully in her home on Sunday, October 23, 2016. Joyce was born on October 2, 1949 in Cleveland, Ohio.

She was a dedicated employee of Heinen's grocery store for over 25 years, retiring in 2010.

Joyce enjoyed many things in life; crafts, cooking, Cleveland sports, and most notably camping with her husband, Rich at their favorite place, Kinzua Dam in Warren, PA . But she enjoyed nothing more than her family, children, and grandchildren. Her face lit up whenever her children and grandchildren were around.

She lived and often sacrificed to make others happy. She took great joy in hearing people laugh, and loved to have her family around her for the holidays and special occasions, especially hosting the annual family clambake. Her smile and love was infectious, and one only needed to be around her for a brief period of time to see how special of a loving and caring wife, mother, grandmother, woman and friend she was.

In addition to her husband, Rich whom she was married to for 49 years, she is survived by her sons, Steven (Shawn) Duncan and Michael (Bobbie) Duncan; her grandchildren, Julie, Alyssa, Erica, Ashley, Brittany, Michelle, McKenzie;

her great grandchildren, Cooper, Cylee, Tanner, Alexis, Leon and Kaydence; her sister, Nancy (Mitch) Antoon.

Preceding Joyce in death are her parents, Louis and Josephine Kluska.

The family will receive friends 4:30-8:30 pm Friday, October 28, 2016 at “ It's been almost a year and I still miss the sound of Joyce's laugh and the long talks we shared. I loved her like the sister I never had.

“ I've been thinking about and missing Joyce lately. This is the time of the year when we would have been making our annual trip to Niagara Falls. I have many fond memories from those trips; we shared countless laughs, stories and bottles of wine. Joyce had a special way of making me feel welcome, always insisting that I was part of the family. She will be forever missed.

“ Joyce was not only my cousin but she was a best friend. While we did not see each other often, we did talk on the phone. Joyce will always be a comfort to me as she will always be with me. She has been and will always be an inspiration to me. No matter how much pain she was in, she always soldiered on, taking care of others. I am so blessed to have had her in my life.

“ Mom,
I don't know where to start and I won't know where to finish...So I will try to keep it simple. You were beautiful inside and out. You were everybody's favorite, but mostly you were a loving and dedicated wife to Dad, a daughter that made sure her parents were always cared for, a sister to look up to and an amazing Mom to Mike and I. I was/am so proud of you, for all of your accomplishments, all of the pain that you fought through and your relentless effort to make everyone around you happy, no matter the sacrifice.
You always told Mike and I how proud you were of us, I hope that as you now look down upon us you see that - all of us are, all that we have become, and all that we strive to do is because of you and Dad. You were/are my mom, my friend, my conscience, my sounding board, and my light. I will miss our phone calls, your advice, your support and your voice and regret that I didn't find a way to visit more often. I have a hole in my heart, I love and miss you dearly...
Your eternally loving Son,
Steven

“ Joyce was my cousin but much more than a cousin...she was my friend and big sister I always wanted. We spent countless hours over the years talking about anything and everything under-the-sun. I will miss her more than anything but I will treasure the times I spent with her. She will forever hold a place in my heart. Lori

“ I have way to many memories to share here but they will always be in my heart. She was my maid of honor 34 years ago and was my daughters 1 st baby sitter. We flew her to California to watch her while we went to Hawaii. Beyond that she was always my home base from the time we met, working together at J C Penny's . Loved her welcoming smile it will stay with me always. Jennifer Burke

“ While I didn't have the opportunity to meet Ms. Joyce, I have had the distinct pleasure of having her boys join our family. She raised two incredibly devoted, loving, and disciplined men of whom she could be proud. May she now rest peacefully with God, knowing that she left this world better than she found it.

Peace and Love to all her family and friends.
