Rest well, Sierra and Sydnee, and Mom.

“ I have many great childhood memories of “Aunt Joyce”. She wasn’t really my aunt, but I’ve always thought of her as one. My parents were good family friends with the Sullivans. They were like my second family. I will miss her sweet smile and her kindness. I remember her spaghetti as well and it was definitely the “BEST”.

“ My BEST childhood memories were with my grandma, from the Christmas Eve parties she would throw every year to the nights I spent with her and my Grandma Sullivan . When my grandma hosted the parties there would be so many family members in her house it was wall to wall, nothing but good times, great food and plenty of laughter. My grandma was/is the SWEETEST person I have ever known. I will miss her deeply. I will miss her spaghetti..its literally the best I have ever had! I will miss her laugh, I will miss the stories that she told me about times on the farm, I will miss sitting by her feet when I would visit her and laying my arms and head in her lap, but most of all I will miss her "Grandma" kisses, with EVERY hug and kiss my grandma ever gave me I could feel the love she had for me...God I'm going to miss that...
