“ What I remember most of my Aunt Judy was her smile and laugh. She always made you feel welcome and loved. She was a giving woman, she put others before herself which you could see in actions throughout her life. Rest now and enjoy Gods gifts

“ Judy was a very, kind, loving person. She supported her family and could remodel her home. She was a very hard worker. A loving mother and very loyal to her extended family. She was a great organizer of family reunions. She will be missed. I pray that she rests in peace and that her family will continue to share happy memories as they share her story. Love Sally A. Koch and Family.
