“ My deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Justin. MY heart broke & the tears flowed when I picked up the newspaper. I did not know him personally but I recall the family history of how he lost his lovely mother & sister. I actually did not know any of them but have always felt their pain, of love and loss. May they all rest in peace. My heart aches for the child and the grandparents left behind. Blessings of love and prayers for all. Together again.
