“ I feel blessed to have known Katie since our college days. We met in the band's color guard and became friends and later, room mates. We shared secrets, laughter, emotional upheavals, and some crazy blind dates. She was loving, kind, and steadfast in her dreams for the future - making a home and family with her beloved Art. Her faith and music gave her strength and solace. I will miss her. My prayers are with you Art, Andrew, Amanda, and Molly.

“ Katie and I were friends in college and roommates one year. She was a dear friend and a lovely lady. We stayed in touch for a very long time, though sadly, in recent years, the contact was sporadic. I am so very sad to hear of her passing. Art, I am so sorry. My heart is with you and your family.

“Katie and my wife Marge Nightengale were very involved with the youth choir at St. Paul’s Presbyterian church in Mentor. (now Mentor Presbyterian). She was the vocalist at our daughter’s wedding and her daughter Amanda was the flower girl. But, more importantly was so kind to our family and Marge Nightengale in particular. I am sure she and Marge are organizing a youth choir in heaven! Russ Nightengale
