“ Cory. I just wanted to say how sorry I am for the loss of your mom. She was a kind soul. Her love for our feral cats was so helpful for me. I love your Patchy and am grateful she found me after your parents moved. I admired how she went to town meetings to fight for our ferals. She showed me the way. I will miss her. God bless 🙏

“ I'll never forgot how kind you were when we moved next door to you Kathy In 1984 on Yorkshire, sending us a pretty plant and all the "talks" throughout the years we shared standing outside our homes. Helping my daughter Christine pick out a beautiful wedding dress from your bridal shop was such a special time, also. But mostly I remember you walking your precious doggie Mosey up our street...how you loved him and all your doggies!! I'll always remember your kindness, Kathy. Pray for us as we know you are now up there with our Dear Jesus and your Jer! Love, Kathy DeLisio
