“ *She is not lost,
Our dearest love,
Nor has she traveled far,
Just stepped inside home's
loveliest room
And left the door ajar.” ~ Irish Saying*

One day, an email arrives from Kay: welcomed, unexpected, out of the blue.

Unlike sometimes, I was quick to respond.

Two days later, she transitioned to another place, from whence she will watch over Paul and Joe and all those she loves... and where we someday will meet with her again.

Sending my LOVE LOVE LOVE to Paul and Joe - and to Kay - and to all who were touched by her smile, laughter and love. May she live on within each of us.

“ Kay, Jackie, and I worked at a law firm together. We were more than friends; we laughed and cried together. May the Great Spirit bless Kay and help Joe and Paul through this incredibly difficult transition. My heart aches for you all. If only I could help...

“ I am heart broken as well as you. Kay and I go back to the 70's when she lived in Cripple Creek, Colorado. We had such great times taking drives in our beautiful mountains (with my son, Jeff) in our old, old cars, splitting costs of food (our big dinner on Fridays was Tuna Casserole and biscuits); we both worked for a local attorney and a local miner. We had way too much fun. It seemed like Kay and I laughed all the time. Her sense of humor was incredible. These were the worst of times that we made into the best of times. We were known as Mert & Gert and that's how we addressed each other to this day. "Gert" was my best friend and I will cherish her and the memories we made forever. Her and Joe did something most of us could not do - they went to Romania and adopted their beautiful son, Paul. That day, both Joe and Kay became angels to this beautiful baby boy. Kay will watch over you both and her brother and the friends she's left behind. What an inspiration you and Joe have been. Rest in peace Gert! I will always love you.

Mert.
