“ One of my fondest memories of Keith is from about 3 or 4 years ago. Keith was still living at his parents house and Andy and I live across the street. I was painting my family room , I had the shades out of the window and I had a bright spot light so I could see what I was doing , but because the light was so bright inside I could not see outside , I saw a little movement in the window and all of a sudden I hear " Hey,what are you doing" well it scared me so bad I almost fell off the ladder, and there in my window stands Keith. After the initial scare I laughed so hard.Thats the kind of stuff Keith used to do to keep us laughing.We will miss your sense of humor you always kept us laughing. You were taken too soon.We will miss you Buddy! Rest in peace. Debby Maxin

“ Keith was one of the greatest person to be around I can't ever remember and angry moment with him it was always laughter and crazy times, he was one of the pioneers of Friday night in Ricks garage puttering around with something, most of the time we were teaching Keith how to fix his cars and that in itself was sometimes hilarious, but he was learning. Keith will surely be missed by myself and my family he touched each one of us. Rest in Peace Keith you deserve it!
