“ So many memories and thankful for them. All the great times sitting around Grandma Mary dining room table with family. Little did I know how precious they would become once I could no longer make new ones. I f not for Uncle Kenneth I would not be here. He met my Dad when they were in the Army together and decided one of his sisters would make Dad a good wife .Guess he liked him that much that he wanted him for a brother-in-law!!! So thank you Uncle Kenneth. Sorry I never told you that.
