“ So very, very sorry to learn of Ken's passing. I worked for him at Highland Advertising for about 5 years. I have many great memories of that time. Ken was fun. He even taught me some German. One time I made a really stupid typing mistake, he circled it and wrote "dummkopf"! After leaving Highland, I still maintained the friendship for many years and, for a few years, did some work for The Mayfield Group ... getting to know his wonderful sons, Mark & Dean. My husband, Dave, would golf with him and even built Ken's darkroom in his Chardon home. Dave said Ken could even sell a snowball to an Eskimo! We would have dinner with him occasionally. Sadly, we lost touch with him after Mark's passing. We missed his friendship. Sending heartfelt condolences to Ken's family.

“ Dear Kampman Kids (ie. Farwood Rascals:), We are so sorry to hear of your wonderful Dad's death, preceded by your Mom and Mark. Too too early in your lives to loose all three treasures! We have such fond memories of growing up on Farwood (all 5 of us were kids in those days:). Didn't we have fun? Great great neighborhood to celebrate friendships, family and friends. How about those 4rth of July festivities? The big parade and show went on year after year. And baseball games? One was never too old or too young to participate in those great games. Halloween, oh boy, the Kampman Kids always made a killing! And Kim, you were the Kohl ladies favorite baby sitter after Marcy went off to college. Can't tell you how much all the memories of you Mom and Dad come flooding back. Dinner parties galore, always of course, at the last minute; sometimes Friday and Saturday night! Photo shoots of the girls for Jack's Christmas present. Dogs. So many Farwood dogs:) Your Mom's cooking!

Know how sorry we are and will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.
