“ I was a classmate of Kim's and have one distinct memory of her. Her love for her family. Especially her pride in her brother who ride BMX! I remember her glowing as she shared of her brothers abilities! So glad to hear of the fine woman she became, I'm proud to have known her. What a legacy, she will be missed!

“ I meet Kim working at the concession stand at Memorial. I was surprised when I heard she had cancer, you would have never known by her spirit and attitude. I use to see her at fitworks at kick boxing, again one would never know she had cancer. She lived life to the fullest and I'm glad to have known her, she is an inspiration. My condolences to all her family I'm sure she will be greatly missed.

“ My greatest memory that always sticks...is us driving the little red Buick Reatta..and signing "joy and pain, sunshine and rain"...and giggling over Taco Bell salads...the weekly lunch..May you rest in peace, my friend..

“ Joe, Don, Makayla, Breana...Kim touched us all as only she could do. Her smile, determination and ability to care about others, regardless of how she felt, are examples of the wonderful person she was. Our camping adventures and misadventures over the years are kind of like Las Vegas...what happened there, stayed there, especially some of the things Andy and Do had to say. From now on instead of "dancing bears" in the fire, it will be the memory of two really wonderful people, Bambi and Kim, smiling and dancing... Ron Wassum, Mentor

“ Joe and Family

We are so sorry to hear of Kim's passing. I saw this poem yesterday and it reminded me so much of her strength and battle with 9 years of cancer. My she soar with the Angels!

I'm Free

by Shannon Lee Moseley

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've found now peace at the end of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will I miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.*

*Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
don't lengthen your time with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now – He set me free.*
