

Laszlo (Leslie) Yanos Toth

July 15, 2015

Laszlo (Leslie) Yanos Toth, 77 years old. Born in Zalaszentivan Hungary, went home to the Lord Tuesday July 15, 2015 after a sudden and brief illness, surrounded by family at the Ames Family Hospice House in Westlake.

Leslie was retired after 40 years as an Electronic Technician at B&B Appliance in Euclid. He loved gardening, hunting, and the study of meteorology. Leslie was an avid student of science and an amateur meteorologist who reported to the National Weather Service. He was an active member of the Mentor Church of Christ, specifically with the Food Pantry and Aid to Honduras Missions.

Leslie was beloved by family, co-workers, and friends and will be missed by all.

Beloved husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather he leaves behind his wife Joyce (nee Nelson) Toth; daughters Cindy (Mike Dreibelbis) Toth and Sherri (Gary) Sebring; sons Tim Toth and Jody Toth; grandchildren Jason (Melanie) Sechler, Joshua (Tiffany) Sechler, John Sechler, Zach Toth, Melissa Toth and Krista Toth; great-grandsons Logan, Nolan, Mac, Corban, and Holden Sechler.

Leslie is preceded by his parents John and Anna and siblings Catherine, Margaret, Mike, George, Steve and John.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests donations be made in his name to the Mentor Church of Christ 7201 Burr ridge Avenue Mentor Ohio 44060.

Services will be held at Mentor Church of Christ 7201 Burr ridge Avenue Mentor Ohio 44060 Monday July 20, 2015 at 11am.

“ I will never forget how much fun and laughter Leslie brought in to my life. I could not wait to spend the night with him and Joyce. The Lord's prayer is one of the things I remember the most. They helped me until I could say it word for word. Trust me, I say it every night. Leslie also Nick named me" Half Pint" it made me feel so special. He would bounce me on his knee and sing silly songs. I will always hold a special place in my heart just for him!! Love Half Pint

“ We will always remember the holiday meals Les and Joyce put together for the whole family. The food was always great but just getting together and visiting was even better.
We will never forget you Les, Love Janet and Jim
