

Laura Welsh

February 6, 2014

Laura Welsh, 54, was called to join her family in heaven on Feb. 6, 2014. Laura departed this life while at home. Laura was born to the late Warren and Kathleen McGough on March 30.

Laura is survived by her devoted husband, John Welsh, who has been by her side for the last 41 years, having had the pleasure of being married for the last 36 years and will treasure their love through eternity; her loving son and daughter, Jamie Welsh and Crystal Welsh will forever treasure their memories of her; and she is also survived by her cherished sister, Holly (Rick) Radabaugh; sister-in-law, Sandy McGough; sister-in-law, Judy (Jim) Ritter; dear friend and brother-in-law, Mike (Sandy) Welsh; son-in-law, Nick Hill; many nieces and nephews; and her spoiled dog, Lucy. Laura was also a proud nana to her granddog, Chloe. Laura will join her recently departed brother, Randy McGough, who in true big brother fashion, went first in order to show her the way.

Laura was an animal lover who greatly missed the loss of all of her previous dogs.

A celebration of Laura's life will be held at her daughter's home at 6960 North Meadow Drive, Concord Township, OH from 4 to 8 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 15. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Laura's memory in care of the family.

A light from our household is gone, a voice we loved is stilled, a place is vacant in our home, which never can be filled. You will always be with us, though we don't see you there.

Arrangements entrusted to Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home and Cremation Center, Mentor.

Online obituary at www.brunners.com.