“ I am truly saddened to hear that Lee has passed away. We worked together closely over the past 3 years (albeit over video technology) and we spoke only 9 days before his passing. Lee was a pleasure to work with, consistently good humoured. We will miss you, Lee. I extend my deepest condolences to the family.

“ I may be in denial that Lee's passed away. I worked with him for the last few years at (Johnson)Diversey / Sealed Air, and last year we were on a few of the projects together. His care to details and his dry sense of humour carried me through many early morning/late evening conference calls. You'll be missed, Lee, and my deepest condolences to the family.

“ I was so sad to hear the news of Lee's passing. He was a great colleague to work with - although we only met face to face infrequently, we talked virtually very often. His humorous and no-nonsense approach made all those work challenges easier to deal with. He will be greatly missed. My sincerest condolences to his family.
