I will miss you so much George, although that is not your real name that is what I called you you and you would call me jeneve or Louise you were so special to me and my daughter she would always take your hat in church and put it on her head and ask how do I look George you would laugh a little and say pretty good jeneve. You always would ask everyone you talked to if they knew who Jesus was? No matter where you were you wanted to make sure they knew all about him and his love, I am going to miss you Uncle Lennis I love you until we meet again.
