“ My memories of the uncle we lost was a loss that can never be forgotten.His love for his children they were his life and his wonderful wife was a love that you don't see much of.He loved his whole family unconditionally. I don't know how a person like him could love so much with only one heart.I'm so lucky to have him for an uncle.His children was taught sowell a nd loved so much by both ther parents.i could write a book on this man but it wouldn't give him the justice he deserves, thats the kind of man he was.He will be missed more than anyone will ever know.his children couldn't have had a more loving father.He was the king who looked over all of us.we were very blessed to HAVE him.our lifes will be missing someone,but the memories will foever be there.You will be missed.

“ Papa # 2, As I reflect on the time I've known you I've come to realize how much you have touched my life in so many ways.. There is so much I'm going to miss about you. I'll miss your smile,(It could light up a room and you could make me smile even if I was having a bad day by just smiling at me), your kind and motivational words, your kind heart, your hospitality, (I never felt like a guest in your house I always felt like "part of the family").. Our daily phone calls, (I always looked forward to those) , I'm going to miss having someone to call and tattle on Reggie and Judy to when they are picking on me. (Can you and Momma #2 send them occasional " reminders " on this one?).. It was a true honor to meet such an amazing man like you RIP I love you and miss you and Momma # 2 terribly .

Uncle Dick, we are soooo going to miss your sweet smile, loving words and great sense of humor! You are one of the elders that has taught this family how to love each other. Give all who have gone on before our love and enjoy those hugs from Aunt Ruth!

Judy, I am saddened at the passing of your beloved father. I know my mom and dad greeted him, with your mom, and they are talking about TRW, the Old Guard and picnics at Geauga Lake Park. I see all four laughing and in great youthful health. God Bless and comfort you & Reggie and your families
