“ I met Linda on her first day of work at Progressive. I had no idea that I'd found a friendship that would last more than 47 years. From those early days of parties and vacations, to all those years when our lives were playing out, to our post-retirement monthly lunches and our shopping trips to Penzeys and Whole Foods (which were a blast), Linda was always someone I could trust, someone I could share with, cry with, and laugh with. Such a dear friend. Linda, I will miss you so much. Alisha, my thoughts and condolences are with you and your family.
