“ Dear Uncle Bob, Very sorry to hear about the passing of Aunt Lois. She was always such a wonderful and generous person and I will always remember her being so supportive of my mother when she was seriously ill during her final few months. We could always count on Aunt Lois being there in good and bad times. She was a great lady and we all know she will rest in peace. Sincerely, Ken + Kathy and family

“ I remember the many happy, summer days that I spent in Smock, PA with my cousin, Lois, and her family back in the 50's. Occasionally, her brother, Chuck, and I teased Lois - she was always such a jovial, lovable sport. I recall how she liked to climb the tree in their backyard. Lois had a pleasant personality; she was “easy to be with.” She will definitely be missed, but our fond memories of her will endure.
