“ So many memories of your parents as we were growing up! The McNiece kids were fascinated by Uncle Bud's missing toe. (I was always worried that it would happen to me!)He took us for boat rides on Lake Erie when we'd come over to visit. He and my Dad would always be teasing our Moms and each other. I recall them getting pretty rowdy after a few beers! ha! ha! Uncle Bud was a true friend to my parents. My Dad wasn't the most handy guy; and on many occasions, he had to call on your Dad's expertise when he got into a project over his head. Bud came to the rescue quite often as I recall!. When my Mom was sick, he would always get her laughing. He and your Mom were my parent's best buds, my Godparents, and I felt a special bond with them. Will miss him, but glad they are all together again!!!!
