“ This photo is taken from my husband and I's wedding. I'm one of Uncle Louis' great nieces. This picture will forever be cherished. Uncle Louis and Aunt Dian have always been dear to me, since I was a small child. Anytime they would visit my grandparents, we would go and see them. When I got to go up to Ohio, they took us to a museum. When I was in college they made a point to stop and see me and have a meal with me before heading home after a visit to the Chattanooga area. Uncle Louis always had his guitar and I can remember him singing and playing in my grandparent's den. I am thankful I had the opportunity to know him and be loved by him.

Lou was a beautiful person inside and out. He was funny, compassionate and loved people! "Lulu Belle" was my nickname for him, it made him smile. I'm positive that our Lord greeted him saying, Well done good and faithful servant. Lou will be greatly missed.
