“ I only met Peggy once, when she came with her daughter Cheryl for a dress fitting. If Cheryl is someone to go by than I am sure Peggy was a wonderful, sweet woman and a very good mother. Cheryl and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I hope that the fond memories you have of her will sustain you during this difficult time. My prayers are with you all. Ann Norris

“ My mom was such a kind hearted woman. She was beautiful and sweet. Growing up she never yelled. She was calm. When I was young I broke my foot. I dropped a couch on it. My mom was at work. I was scared to call her so I waited till she got home. When she saw my foot she almost cried. She said honey, why didn't u call me. I said because I didn't want u to lose your job. She said, Deanna no job will ever be more important to me than u and Cheryl. Then, for weeks into a cast I was sick of it so, Cheryl and I took the biggest knife and carved it off. When my mom got home she said oh my what did u do. I said well, it was itchy and what if the Dr. was cute and saw my leg all gross. She never yelled she was just concerned. There are many moments my mom could of got angry but it wasn't in her nature. She was a sweet beautiful woman. I can't believe she's gone. God needed her home but he forgot I need her more.
