“ For a long time we never knew her name. In our house, she was referred to as " The lady with the Pugs". Eventually we learned her name and then it became a household phrase..." There goes Ms. Margie."

Who knew that a smile or wave from a stranger walking her dog/dogs would make a neighborhood feel like home. Ms Margie, we are thankful we got to know you and we will forever remember you. We will miss seeing you walking by. God Bless you in Heaven and your Family her on Earth.

“ I sponsored Marge when she first came to AA. I watched her evolve into a beautiful, kind, caring woman. We had so many great conversations and we became more than just sponsor/sponsee, we were friends and Tom & I enjoyed her company. She was kind and caring but also fun and entertaining!! She loved her family deeply and was so very proud of Justin and the amazing man he grew into and shared with me his accomplishments. She loved Donny, her pets & her neighbors. She was taken from this earth too soon and Tom and I are sadden by your loss and your entire family are in our thoughts and prayers🥹🥹🥹🙏🙏🙏🙏. Tom & Richye Jamieson

“ Margie was the best friend and neighbor anyone could ever have. I will forever treasure her kind deeds and numerous heartfelt chats that we shared. She showed her love to those who meant a lot to her. I hope she knew how important a person she was. She left an indelible mark on our hearts.

“ Marge, the neighborhood dog walker!! She was a friend to all. Already she is dearly missed. My husband and I remember how her four legged friends were always by her side, either walking beside her or riding in a baby stroller. She would stop by and talk to most everyone. We haven't seen a dog walker since she went to her heavenly home. May God grant you comfort and strength at this most difficult time. Rest In Peace Marge. We will never forget you.

“ I remember Margery visiting my dad (Doc White) in Louisiana. He loved to tease her and she teased him right back. They had fun together. Her nick name there was Boy George. RIP
