“ Dear Gallagher Family,
My deepest sympathy on the loss of your mom. Midge was truly a lady!
Her sewing talent was evident throughout her home and her holiday decorating was legendary.
Above all, Midge loved her five children and her grandchildren to whom she wrote letters regularly-even in the month before her passing.
Brian, on every one of my visits, she recounted how kind and good you were to her and how lucky she was to have you with her. I know her passing will leave a big void in your life.
Midge once told me she never met anyone she did not like--not in her school days, her service years or her years of raising her family.
She really loved everyone!
May her beautiful soul rest in peace.

“ It was so endearing of Midge to have her handmade cozy scarfs on hand at Christmas. I was grateful to be a fortunate recipient! Christmas was special and unique in your home, Brian. I'm certain she touched many hearts. Love and prayers to you and yours,
