

Marjorie (Hopkins) Stewart Thomas

November 8, 2012

Funeral services celebrating the life of Marjorie (Hopkins) Stewart Thomas, 86, of Madison, will be noon, Monday, Nov. 12, 2012, at First Church Congregational, 22 Liberty St. Painesville. The Rev. Tom Cofer will officiate.

Marge passed away peacefully in her Madison home, of 57 years, Nov. 8, 2012, surrounded by her loving family.

Marge worked at the Painesville Telegraph and retired as a school secretary with the Madison School District. Marge had many creative talents and was passionate about her hobbies of writing, reading and painting. She was active in Marriage Encounter, "Wrinkled Writers," and the "Chit Chat Chicks," but nothing gave her more pleasure than enjoying time with her family. Marge was a 1944 graduate of Harvey High School and attended Baldwin-Wallace College.

Survivors include her sons, Michael (Michelle) Stewart, Patrick (Karen) Stewart, Jeffrey (Anita) Stewart and James (Kristine) Stewart; twin daughters, Kathi (Michael) Roe and Karen (Max) Rauer; stepdaughter, Judy Johnson; 32 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren and two more on-the-way. Her first husband, James Stewart; second husband, George Thomas; and dear friend, John "Moose" Kaufman, preceded her in death.

The family will receive friends from 10:30 a.m. until noon Monday November 12, 2012 at the church.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions be made to Hospice of the Western Reserve, 5786 Heisley Road, Mentor, OH 44060 or the Madison Public Library, 6111 Middle Ridge Road, Madison, OH 44057.

Marge will be laid to rest next to husband Jim Stewart at Evergreen Cemetery during a private family ceremony.

Arrangements are entrusted to Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home & Cremation Center in Mentor.
